ROTARIAN OF THE WEEK - Secretary Joel Tzinberg was awarded Rotarian of the Week for his “awesome” service to the club and for keeping Tim abreast of the football game scores! A “must have” in any club.

DISTRICT GOVERNOR ELECT HOSPITALITY PARTY - Once again, the La Mesa Rotary Club will be involved in welcoming Rotarian leaders from all over the world in a “let your hair down and have a great time” event. This year, the El Cajon noon club will be the host club. The event will take place Saturday, January 21st at St. Madeline’s Sophies Center in El Cajon, from 2-6 in the afternoon. The address is 2119 E. Madison Avenue, 92019. The La Mesa Club will be BBQing carne and pollo asada and WE NEED AN EXTRA BBQ. Our friend Alex Roberts will be the DJ extraordinaire. Mark your calendars, sign up to help, and lets all have a wonderful time with our extended Rotary family. Let John Price know if you have a BBQ to bring to the event!

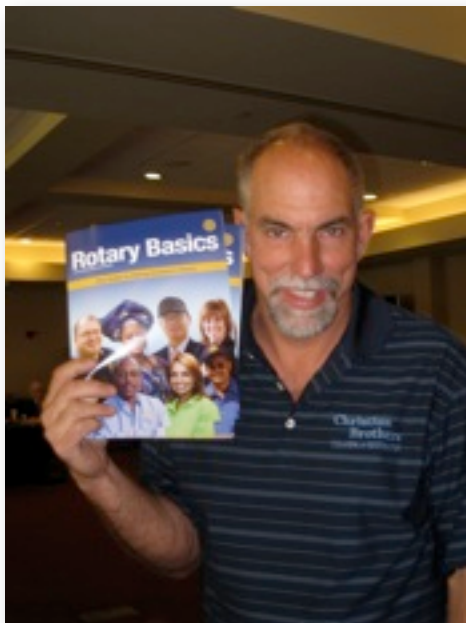

PAUL HARRIS FELLOW AWARDS - Rotarians Deanna Price and Glenn Kellogg were both awarded with a PFH pin for a contribution of $6K to The Rotary Foundation. Way to go!

Chair Mike Fellows reminds us to give, give, give...you know why.

Club News

ROTARY BASICS - Membership chair Mark Matthews has a bunch of "Rotary Basics" to distribute. This publication, updated annually, is a nice, easy read summary of Rotary. Great for PR to give to potential new members and a great refresher course for Rotarians...old and new! See Mark for your own copy!

EL SALVADOR PROSTHETIC CLINIC A GO AGAIN -

Rotarian Eddy Gosschalk happily informed the club today that the Prosthetics Clinic that he and a Rotary Club in Orange County has been working so hard to get going...is finally back on track (after a little "political" set back). In addition, the clinic will be subsidized by the government. Great news for those in need. He will keep us posted on the progress.

PROGRAM - The Monte Vista High School Monarch Honor Choir entertained the La Mesa Rotary Club once again. This tremendously talented group, under the guidance of Director Sarah LeClair-Klaca, are really going places. They entertain around the country, win awards galore and several of the seniors are moving on to colleges for the performing arts. We honored Sarah's dedication by awarding the group with a check for $500!
